

Local Law No. 2 of the year 1993

Section 1. Purpose

The Board of Trustees of the Village of Fonda finds the running at large and other uncontrolled behavior of licensed and unlicensed dogs has caused physical harm to persons, damage to property and created nuisances within the Village. The purpose of this local law is to protect the health, safety and well-being of persons and property by imposing restrictions on the keeping and running at large of dogs within the Village of Fonda.

Section 2. Authority

This local law is enacted pursuant to the provisions of Section 124 of Article 7 of the Agricultural and Markets Law of the State of New York.

Section 3. Title

The title of this law shall be “The Village of Fonda Dog Control and Confinement Law.”

Section 4. Definition of Terms

As used in this local law, the following words shall have the following respective meaning:

a. Agriculture and Markets Law. The Agriculture and Markets Law of the State of New York in effect as of the effective date of this local law, as amended by this local law, and as amended thereafter.

b. Confined. That such animal is securely confined or restrained and kept on the owner's premises, either within a building, kennel or other suitable enclosure or securely fastened on a chain, wire or other effective tether of such length and so arranged that the animal cannot reach or endanger any person or any adjacent premises or on any public street, way or place, or if the animal is being transported by the owner, or so restrained in a vehicle that it cannot be expected to escape therefrom.

c. Dog. Dog shall mean male and female, licensed and unlicensed, members of the species Canis familiaris.

d. Dog Control Officer. Any person authorized by the Village from time to time to enforce the provisions of the Agriculture and Markets Law.

e. Owner. The party purchasing the license unless dog is or has been lost, and such loss reported to the dog warden and reasonable search has been made. If an animal is not licensed, the term of owner shall designate and cover any person or persons, firm, association or corporation, who, or which at any time owns or has custody or control of, harbors, or is otherwise responsible for any animal which is kept, brought or comes within the Village. Any person owning or harboring a dog for a period of one (1) week prior to the filing of any complaint charging a violation of this local law shall be held complaint charging a violation of this local law shall be held and deemed to be the owner of such dog found to be in violation of this chapter shall be owned by a minor, the head of the household in which said minor resides shall be deemed to have custody and control of said dog and shall be responsible for any acts of the said dog and violation of this local law.

f. Recreational Areas. Recreational Areas shall mean any real property owned by the Village of Fonda which is used for recreational purposes by the public including but not limited to, parks or playgrounds.

g. Run at large. Run at large shall mean to be in a public place or on private lands without the knowledge, consent and approval of the owner of such lands.

h. School Premises. Any real property situate within the Village of Fonda which is used for educational purposes or purposes incidental thereto.

i. Village of Fonda. Shall designate within the corporate limits of the Village of Fonda.

Section 5. Restrictions

It shall be unlawful for any owner of any dog in the Village of Fonda to permit or allow such dog to:

a. Run at large unless the dog is restrained by an adequate leash or unless it is accompanied by its owner or a responsible person able to control it by command. For the purpose of this local law, a dog or dogs hunting in company of a hunter or hunters shall be considered as accompanied by its owner.

b. Engage in habitual loud howling, barking, crying or whining or conduct itself in such a manner so as to unreasonably and habitually disturb the comfort or response of any person other than the owner of such dog.

c. Uproot, Dig or otherwise damage any vegetables, lawns, flowers, garden beds or other property not belonging to the owner of such dog.

d. Chase, jump upon or at otherwise harass any person in such a manner as to reasonably cause intimidation or fear or to put such person in reasonable apprehension of bodily harm or injury.

e. Habitually chase, run alongside of or bark at motor vehicles while on a public street or highway or upon public or private property other than the property of the owner or harbinger of said dog.

f. Create a nuisance by defecating, urinating or digging on public or private property of someone other than the owner of said dog.

g. If a female dog , be off the owner's premises when in heat.

h. Be at large on any school premises or recreational areas, or the sidewalks adjacent thereto, unless said dog is on a leash.

Establishment of the fact or facts that a dog has committed any of the acts prohibited by Section 5 of this local law shall be presumptive evidence against the owner or harbinger if such dog that he has failed to properly confine, leash or control his dog.

Section 6. Enforcement

This local law shall be enforced by any dog control officer or peace officer when acting pursuant to his special duties.

Section 7. Seizure, Impoundment, Redemption and Adoption.

a. Any dog found in violation of the provisions of Section 5 of this local law may be seized pursuant to the provisions of Section 118 of the Agricultural and Markets Law.

b. Every dog seized shall be properly cared for, sheltered, fed, and watered for the redemption periods set forth in Section 118 of the Agricultural and Markets Law.

c. Seized dogs may be redeemed by producing proof of licensing and identification pursuant to the provisions of Article 7 of the Agricultural and Markets Law and by paying the impoundment fees set forth in Section 118 of said Article. In the event any such dog so impounded shall be a "seeing eye dog" customarily used by a blind person in walking or traveling about, or a dog used similarly by its master as an aid to its master's ordinary and necessary pursuit by reason of some disability on the part of the master, then such dog may be pound fee being required in advance of such redemption. In such latter event. such pound fee shall not be waived by the Village, but shall be collectible from the owner of such dog by civil action if necessary.

d. If the owner of any redeemed dog is known, such owner shall be required to pay the impoundment fee set forth in subdivision (c) of this section whether or not such owner chooses to redeem his or her dog.

e. Any dog unredeemed at the expiration of the appropriate redemption period shall be made available for adoption or euthanized pursuant to the provisions of Section 118 of the Agricultural and Markets Law.

f. No action shall be maintained against the Village of Fonda, any dog control officer or peace officer when acting pursuant to his special duties, or any other agent or officer of the Village or person under contract to said Village of Fonda to recover the possession or value of any dog, or for the damages for injury or compensation for the destruction of any dog seized or destroyed pursuant to the provisions of this local law or the Agricultural and Markets Law.

Section 8 Appearance Ticket.

Any dog control officer, peace officer when acting pursuant to his special duties, or police officer on observing a violation of this local law in his presence may issue and serve an appearance ticket for such violation. He is further empowered to serve a complaint and serve and execute any other order or process necessary in the furtherance of this local law.

Section 9. Complaint

a. Any person who observes a dog in violation of this local law may file a complaint under oath with a Town Justice specifying the nature of the violation, the date thereof, a description of the dog and the name and residence, if known, of the owner of the dog.

b. Upon receipt by the Town Justice of any such complaint, he shall summon the alleged owner to appear in person before him for a hearing, at which both the complainant and owner shall have an opportunity to be represented by counsel and to present evidence. If, after such hearing, the Town Justice decides that further action is warranted, he may order:

1. The dog to be declared a vicious or dangerous dog to be restrained by the collar and leash at all times whether on or off the owner's property.

2. The dog to be confined to the premises of the owner.

3. Such other remedy as may be warranted by the circumstances in such case.

c. A violation of any order issued by a Town Justice under the provisions of this Section 8 shall be an offense punishable, upon conviction thereof, as provided in Section 9 of this local law.

d. In addition to the actions set forth in (b) above the Court may impose a fine as set forth in Section 10 of this local law.

Section 10. Penalties

Upon conviction, a violation of this local law shall be deemed an offense and punishable by a fine not exceeding Fifty ($50.00) Dollars for the first offense, and One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars for each offense thereafter.

Section 11. Separability

Each separate provision of this local law shall be deemed independent of all other provisions herein, and if any provisions shall be deemed or declared invalid, all other provisions hereof shall remain valid and enforceable.

Section 12. Repealer

This local law shall supersede all prior local laws, ordinances, rules and regulations relative to the control of dogs within the Village of Fonda and they shall be, upon the effectiveness of this local law be null and void.

Section 13. Effective Date

This local law shall take effect immediately upon filing with the Secretary of State.